Department of Religious Studies
Personal Journal Guide

At the end of each week we ask that you write down some of your thoughts, ideas, and questions from that week. This is very important feedback for the instructor and allows us to more carefully and completely foster your learning.

The assignment is ungraded and not considered a formal submission, though it is required: you can treat it as you would a discussion posting. Only you and the instructor will see it.

We ask that you write several sentences about your thoughts, ideas, and concerns as a result of the completed week of learning. It need not be overly personal unless of course you wish to address something of a personal nature. We are particularly interested in your thinking about the course and how advantageous your experience has been.